Authorized Dealers:

Integrators interested in becoming an authorized dealer must complete a dealer application form, credit card authorization form and provide a resellers permit. These forms are available through an inquiry to info@fusionrd.com, completed forms should be emailed to: orders@fusionrd.com or faxed to 208.693.7429.

Order Processing:

Orders received after 3pm EST will be processed the next business day, payment is made at the beginning of the build cycle. Fusion builds each movie server to order and takes them through an extensive QC process. Because of this, orders generally require 7 days to process and ship out. It is strongly recommended that dealers give themselves enough time to bring the product in and set it up in their facility before heading to the installation site.

Fusion products ship ground from California at dealers expense. Expedited shipping may be available upon request.

ZP1 zone players do not have optical drives, external drives may be added via USB connection. A UPS is required on all servers. A commercial grade gigabit switch should be used for all installations. These products are all network dependent, a faulty or low grade router/switch could result in a system that does not perform properly.

Fusion servers and players are designed to store home movies and unencrypted DVDs/Blu-ray. Fusion does not condone any other use for this product and suggests owners should respect the copyrights of others. If you are going to store your own commercially encrypted DVDs or Blu-ray you will first need to purchase a license of AnyDVD HD. If a dealer does not wish to specify their own NAS storage devices, Fusion can provide them at close to market prices.
